Discover Historic Galena

November 5-7, 2019 3 Days

Did you know that Ulysses S. Grant is a huge rock star in Galena? Explore Galena's history and meet the spirits of Ulysses and Julia Grant in a hologram that welcomes guests to the Galena History Museum where true national treasures, such as the "Peace in Union" painting, "General Grant on the Battlefield" painting, Flag from the Vicksburg Siege, a topographical map of Jo Daviess County, mining and steam boating are presented. The museum is located in a 1858

Italianate mansion built as a private residence by Galena merchant Daniel Barrows. The Museum features over 6,000 square feet of exhibit space on lead mining in the northwest region, the drift less area, Grant's leather store, the Port of Galena: 1858. Discover souvenirs, gifts, books of historical nature in the museum gift and bookshop.

November 5 - Tuesday

While the baggage is being handled for you and brought to your room, we will proceed to the Parker Room for an unbelievable lunch. Delicious food and exceptional entertainment! Next, on to a docent-led Step-on Guide for a Galena Tour of History. Our local historian will hop aboard our trolley to give us an even deeper appreciation of the rich history unique to Galena. The tour lasts one and a half hours and takes guests through the historic town. Then a little time to browse the neighborhood shops. Dinner is in the Room of Generals.

November 6, Wednesday

In the morning, order breakfast off the menu and please allow up to 45 minutes in order to not miss the first tour. First stop – the Old Market House / Welcome Center. This is a truly beautiful welcome center with everything Ulysses S. Grant. His family, paintings, guns, clothing and a whole lot more. There will be many docents stationed everywhere in the center to accommodate our group.

Next up on the agenda, the Galena and US Grant Museum which is sure to please. Then the afternoon is yours to shop and visit more museums. Galena is a treasure trove of trinkets, clothing and antiques. You are certain to find something special.

This evening, dinner is in the grand ballroom and Destinations With Nadine has arranged for a fun period-focused entertainment sure to please.

November 7, Thursday

As we say goodbye to Galena, we will travel through Stockton IL and stop at the Stockton Heritage Museum where Kraft Food was born and an unbelievably beautiful restaurant with great food: Stella's Café.
